Course Overview

This course introduces students to the principles of public speaking, and prepares them to speak with credibility and confidence. It covers several of the major varieties of speeches used to address real world situations, such as instructing, informing, persuading, and praising. Students will practice preparing and delivering these speeches, and learn how to address audiences respectfully, persuasively on significant matters.

Course Goals

Students should expect to gain practice and learn the following:

1. Effectively deliver speeches in a number of public forums and formats.
2. Apply the requisite techniques used to research, organize, and script a speech.
3. Perform constructive criticism of peers and public figures.
4. Speak extemporaneously and field questions on prepared topics.
5. Adapt arguments and speaking styles to different audiences.
