Course Overview

In this course we will develop and study international macroeconomic frameworks that model an economy open to trade in financial assets and real goods. We will specifically aim to understand the rapidly growing financial linkages between countries, and their implications about individual economies. We will stress concepts and their application to current events. The overarching topic of the course is understanding the numerous forces that shape currency exchange rates, which are the crucial determinants of financial and trade flows between countries. Other topics of particular interests are capital flows, macroeconomic stabilization in open economies, single-currency areas, and sovereign debt crises. We will apply the analytical tools we learn to address major current issues such as Brexit, the Greek debt crisis, currency unions and the Euro more generally, the global impact of the financial crisis, the persistent trade deficits and international indebtedness (i.e. global imbalances) and more.

Learning Outcomes

After successfully completing this course you should be able to:

1. Demonstrate a knowledge of the international monetary system, and an ability to calculate and interpret values for various exchange rate problems
2. Have a basic knowledge of how international financial markets work.
3. Understanding of exchange rates and why currency values fluctuate.
4. Explore methods used to manage risk in the global markets.
5. Provide an in-depth understanding of the process and techniques used to make international investment decisions.
