Course Overview

Welcome to KR370 Advanced Korean Language. As a continuation of KR 200 Level, the course aims to help students expand communicative skills in modern Korean at an advanced intermediate level and develop deeper awareness of significant cultural values and practices in Korean-speaking communities. Building on the knowledge gained from students' prior Korean studies, the course introduces more advanced linguistic structures and vocabulary with greater emphasis on writing practice.

Course Goals

By the end of the course, students who have completed this course successfully should be able to: communicate in Korean in various situations using culturally appropriate language; carry out a variety of language functions, such as describing experiences and events, giving opinions, and reporting information, while using proper communicative strategies; comprehend advanced-intermediate-level Korean texts and write a broad range of daily-life as well as sociocultural topics (e.g., cultural differences).

Final Exam (40%): 2 hours' Written Test

Assessment Summary

The final grade of the course is based on Course work (60%) and Final Examination (40%). The course work part of the grade is comprised of Assignment (30%), and Lecture Participation(Attendance) (10%), and Tutorial Participation(Quiz) (20%).
